

Table of Contents
Updated & Extended NR Historic District Nomination
(Finalized 2/14/20)

Introductory Pages:

Section 1: Name of Property

Section 2: Location

Section 3: State/Federal Agency Certification

Section 4: National Park Service Certification

Section 5: Classification (ownership & category of property, number of resources that are contributing or non-contributing)

Section 6: Function or Use (Historic and Current)

Description and Significance of Historic District

Section 7: Description

Pg. 1. Description Summary

Pg. 2 General Description

Pg. 3 Setting: Tent Department

Pg. 4 - the Circle, its radiating avenues, alleys, path & associated views: including First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth Avenues; Johnson Alley; Acorn Lane and Miller Drive

Pg. 6 - Parks: including Jackson Park; Knott Park; Wade Hill (location of Political Hill)

Pg. 8 Setting: B&O RR Corridor and associated features, including Washington Grove Station, Humpback Bridge & associated views, Bridge, Railroad Park

Pg. 9 Setting: Cottage Department

Pg. 10 Setting: Cottage Department Circulation System

Avenues: including Chestnut Ave. & associated views; Cherry Ave. & associated Views; Grove Ave. & associated views; Maple Ave. & associated views; Pine Ave. & associated views

Pg. 13- Roads: including Chestnut Road; Grove Road; Hickory Road; Maple Road; Pine Road

Pg. 14 - Streets and Lanes: including Brown Street & associated views (stone perimeter wall); Center Street & associated views; Dorsey Street & associated views; McCauley Street & associated views; Oak Street & associated views,

Pg. 17- Boundary Roads: including Boundary Street; Railroad Street & associated views; Ridge Road & associated views; Washington Grove Lane & associated views

Pg. 18 Setting: Cottage Department Parks

Pg. 18 - Chapel Park & associated views

Pg. 19 - Howard Park & associated views

Pg. 20 -McCauley Park and Morgan Park & associated views

Pg. 21- Washington Grove Meadow Conservation Park & associated views (also Maryland archaeological site # 18M06221)

- Pg. 22- Woodward Park & associated views (also stone fireplace, maintenance building)
- Pg. 23 Setting: Forest Preserves
 - Pg. 23 - East Woods & associated views
 - Pg. 24 - West Woods & their associated views
- Pg. 25 Setting: Water Features
 - Pg. 25- Maple Spring
 - Pg. 25- Whetstone Spring
 - Pg. 25- Maple Lake & associated views
- Pg. 26 Systems of Small-Scale Features
 - Pg. 26 - Remaining elements of the well water system; Remaining elements of the camp meeting-era stormwater and drainage system
 - Pg. 27 - Wood street signs; Spherical streetlights; historic fire hydrants
- Pg. 28 Architecture: Founding and Early Development (1873-1901)
 - Pg. 28 - (representative examples): 315 Grove Avenue; 127 Grove Avenue
 - Pg. 29 - (representative examples): 301 First Avenue; 206 Grove Avenue; 15 the Circle
 - Pg. 30 - (representative example): 1 the Circle
 - Pg. 31 - (representative examples): 313 Grove Avenue; 416 Fifth Avenue; 112 Grove Avenue
 - Pg. 32 - (representative example): 119 Maple Avenue
 - Pg. 32 - (discussion) Hershey's Restaurant
 - Pg. 33 - (representative example): McCathran Hall
- Pg. 34 Architecture: Early Twentieth Century (1902-1936)
 - Pg. 34 - (representative example): 409 Fifth Avenue
 - Pg. 35 - (representative example): 109 Maple Avenue
 - Pg. 36 - (representative examples): 108 Grove Avenue; 103 Brown Street
 - Pg. 37 - (representative examples): 126 Washington Grove Lane; Odd Fellows Hall
 - Pg. 37 - (discussion): Commercial Corner
 - Pg. 38 - (discussion): Feed Mill and Concrete Silo Complex at 671-681 East Diamond Street
 - Pg. 38 - (representative examples): 200 Washington Grove Lane; 128 Washington Grove Lane
- Pg. 39 Architecture: Early Municipal Period (1937-1945)
 - Pg. 39 - (representative examples): 410 Oak Street; 201 Washington Grove Lane; 402 Fourth Avenue
 - Pg. 40 - (representative example): Woman's Clubhouse
- Pg. 40 Architecture: Post-World War II Period (1946-1969)
 - Pg. 41 - (representative examples): 106 Pine Avenue; 13 Center Street; 205 Grove Avenue
 - Pg. 42 - (representative examples): 415 Chestnut Avenue; Washington Grove United Methodist Church
- Pg. 43 Architecture: Current Period (1970-present)
- Pg. 44 Tables: Contributing and Non-Contributing Resources

- Pg. 44 - Buildings
- Pg. 49 - Sites
- Pg. 50 - Structures
- Pg. 50 Historic Associated Features
 - Pg. 50 - Circulation
 - Pg. 51 - Small-Scale Features
 - Pg. 51- Topographic Features
 - Pg. 51- Views and Viewsheds

Description and Significance of Historic District (continued)

Section 8: Significance

Statement of Significance (Applicable National Register Criteria, Area of Significance; Period of Significance; Significant Dates; Architects and Builders, Major Bibliographical References)

Summary Statement of Significance

- Pg. 1- National Register Criterion A (Social History, Community Planning and Development)
- Pg. 1- National Register Criterion C (Architecture)
- Pg. 2- National Register Criterion C (Community Planning and Development, Landscape Architecture)
- Pg. 3- Period of Significance (1873-1969)

Resource History and Historic Context

- Pg. 3- The Founding and Early Development of Washington Grove (1873 -1901)
 - Pg. 3 - Origins and Early Development of Camp Meetings in the United States
 - Pg. 7 - Nineteenth-Century Suburbanization and the Emergence of Summer Resorts in the Washington Region
 - Pg. 9 - The Religious Resort Period of Camp Meeting Development
 - Pg. 12- Carpenter Gothic
 - Pg. 14- The Washington Grove Camp Meeting Association
- Pg. 22- Washington Grove in the Early Twentieth Century (1902-1937)
 - Pg. 22- Suburbanization in the Progressive Era
 - Pg. 23- The Impact of Infrastructure Improvements at Washington Grove
 - Pg. 26- Park Beautification and Recreational Amenities
 - Pg. 27- Development of the Commercial Corner
 - Pg. 28- Decentralization and Residential Development
 - Pg. 30- Chautauqua Comes to Washington Grove
 - Pg. 36 - The Conservation Movement Comes to Washington Grove
 - Pg. 39 - Early Steps Towards Incorporation
- Pg. 40- The Early Municipal Period (1937-1945)
 - Pg. 40- New Government and New Initiatives
 - Pg. 41- Commercial Corner
 - Pg. 42- Residential Development
- Pg. 44- Post-World War II Period (1946-1969)
 - Pg. 44- Post World War II Suburbanization

- Pg. 46- Regional Trends in Postwar Residential Architecture
- Pg. 48- Postwar Growth in Washington Grove and Home Rule
- Pg. 51- The Auditorium Controversy
- Pg. 52- Community Activism
- Pg. 53- Current Period (1970-present)
 - Pg. 53- Preservation Efforts
 - Pg. 55- Conflict over the Commercial Corner
 - Pg. 56- Town Growth
 - Pg. 57- Cultural Traditions

Section 9: Bibliographical References

Section 10: Geographical Data (including acreage)

Page 1 (continuation sheet) Verbal Boundary Description, Boundary Justification

Section 11: Citation and Date for Robinson & Associates as Form Preparers

Map Section (including Delineation of Historic District on USGS Gaithersburg 7.5

Minute Series and Detailed Map of Washington Grove Historic District, showing all boundaries and indicating non-contributing properties)

Historic Maps (pgs. 1 to 3) & Historic Images Section (pgs. 4 to 10)

Contemporary Photos

- Pg. 1 Index to Photographs
- Pgs. 2 to 13 Representative contributing views
- Pgs. 14 to 23 Representative historic associated features such as parks, forest preserves, and street signs
- Pgs. 24 to 46 Representative contributing buildings and streetscapes