

Comments from Margo Cavenagh (extracted from TF Inquiry Form- Summary of Responses)

The path has quality-of-life advantages which have been alluded to by many other people under multiple criteria. One aspect I have not seen mentioned is the impact it will have on those of us who are aging in place. Being able to do errands without using a car can make staying in one's home feasible for years longer than otherwise.