Subject: Fwd: resolution

To the Council:

As a former editor gone straight, I recommend three tweaks.

The third whereas: verb should be plural (have) instead of singular

Page 6: racially motivated should not have a hyphen

I'm put off by the 10,000 whereases. I think the information might be easier to absorb in a short statement with bulleted points and then the resolution. (e.g., "Given the described history of racial issues in the Grove....") But what do I know.
