Post Office Box Fees to be Eliminated for Town Residents

As a result of discussions between the Town (Mayor Compton, Councilors Raimondo and Dibble) and the United States Postal Service over the absence of residential mail delivery to Town residents that requires us to rent post office boxes and pay escalating fees for the service, the USPS has agreed to discontinue charging residents for post office boxes rental.

The USPS is in the process formalizing this decision and is confirming all existing box holders who qualify for the no-fee post office boxes. Future residents will also be entitled to a no-fee post office box.

Until the new policy is implemented, fees will continue to be collected. Some of us will be unlucky to have our box renewal come due before the new policy comes into effect.

It is recommended that you consider paying for only a 3-month renewal in anticipation that fees will soon be discontinued.
